

I am outraged that the FCC is considering a proposal to preempt the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. We are finally able to eat dinner without constant unwanted phone calls and we have control of our evenings for family time. Prior to the Indiana law we would receive as many as 10 or more unwanted calls every evening. Solicitors are a tenacious bunch - I DO NOT WANT THEM CALLING ME...PERIOD.